JANSEN'S ACTS ARE MYSTIFYING

The "Great Jansen" company at the Orpheum last night gave a performance that startled an audience as large as the theater had room for, and if the theater had been larger the audience would also have been larger, for many were turned away after the standing room only sign was ended. The tricks and illusions of other performers who have been here within recent years were surpassed by Jansen, and it is safe to say that he will play to crowded houses for the rest of the engagement. He was generally declared the cleverest conjurer that has come here, and his acts were watched with absorbing interest.

The performance is full of good things, and has some features which are thrilling. How the magician does the things which the audience sees is a puzzle which many people in Honolulu are pondering over today.

Aside from the star performer, the program of the Jansen company contains features of much merit. Miss Daisy Thorne, soprano, had three well deserved recalls and De Hollis and Vallora, comedy novelty jugglers, did some splendid stunts.

The Jansen company is certain to have great success during all its engagement. Jansen promises new mysteries every evening.

the following portion of which is quoted in the complaint:

"We are all in favor of high prices and fixed high prices. We should fix the status of a poacher (a retailer who competes for business in the territory of another) and keep it fixed. His place should be with the scalper (a retailer who sells at wholesale prices), but illegitimate dealer wherever he may be found.

"The narrowness of such a view will be pointed out, and the most mean and acrimonious cry against it will come from the operator who is selling wherever he can and to whoever he pleases, seemingly without reason and always without care as to custom or channel for distribution.

Besides, there is nothing so good as D. D. D. for a household skin remedy, for it washes away pimples over night, and cleanses the skin of all forms of skin impurities.

JUST WHAT ITS NAME IMPLIES.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is all that its name implies. There has never been a case reported of cramp colic, cholera morbus or dysentery where this remedy was used that it did not give prompt relief. It is as good for the child as for the adult and all danger from cholera infantum will be avoided if this medicine is promptly administered. For sale by all dealers, Benson, Smith & Co., agents for Hawaii.

ITCHING ECZEMA CURED.

You don't need to suffer another day with that awful itch. A few drops of that wonderful compound known as the D. D. D. Prescription will take away the itch instantly, yes, the moment the first drops are applied to the inflamed skin, the itching is stopped. Many Eczema sufferers have failed so utterly with salves and other "discoveries" that even the assurance of the best physician or druggist cannot induce them to invest another cent in any remedy.

It is to just these discouraged sufferers that we now offer at 25c a trial bottle of the genuine D. D. D. Prescription, a simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol and a few other ingredients, so compounded that they reach the very worst cases of Eczema and all other skin diseases.

ENGLISH AS SHE IS PRONOUNCED.

The recent wedding of Mrs. John A. Stirling, formerly Clara Elizabeth Taylor, the American chorus girl, to Lord George Hugo Cholmondeley, second son of the Marquis of Cholmondeley, serves as a reminder that the ways of English pronunciation are past finding out.

Cholmondeley is not pronounced the way it is spelled. So, in case you ever happen to meet Lord and Lady Cholmondeley or have occasion to mention their name, you must pronounce it Chumley, Ch-u-m, chum, le-y, ley, and that's Cholmondeley.

And that isn't all. There are other high-sounding names associated with the British aristocracy that call for gymnastics in pronunciation. Lord Worcester pronounces himself Wooster, so if you want to be considered somewhat superior don't ask for the Worcester-shire sauce at table. Pronounce it Woostersher sauce and say it quickly and you've got it.

The first suburban station beyond East New York on the Long Island railroad is Warwick, and the guards call "War-wick street" when the train stops. This is perfectly dreadful to the English way of pronouncing Warwick. Over there they call it Warwick. Lady Warwick is Lady Warwick.

In England too, the name M-i-c-h-i-l-i-m-a-c-i-l-n-a-c resolves itself when pronounced into Mackinaw, M-a-r-j-o-r-b-a-n-k-s is pronounced Marchbank, L-e-i-c-e-s-t-e-r Lester, N-o-r-w-i-c-h Norri], like porridge, and there are many others, but sufficient examples have been given to show what unexplainable liberties the English take in the pronunciation of their own language.
